Contact details of the Data Protection Officer

If you have any questions regarding data protection, please contact the Data Protection Officer of Turku University of Applied Sciences: tietosuoja@turkuamk.fi

What is personal information used for and how?

Through electronic registration, the information that is collected from you is needed for the proper execution of appointments, logistics, check-in and payment transactions, for example. Based on your information, you may also be provided with additional information about the event you have signed up for, before, during and after the event. We only collect information that is necessary to provide these services.

Personal information may be disclosed if agreed with you at the time of registration for the event. Allergy information will be processed with your consent so that we can take it into account when serving.

The processing of personal data is based on the consent of the participant and the implementation of the agreement (EU 679/2016 6.1a &b).

What types of data are collected?

We collect the following information:

- Name and contact information
- Information on whether you represent an organization or company as a participant; in this case also the position and the name of the organization or company.
- Information on food allergies
- Billing address

We may collect other relevant information if the nature of the event and its execution so require.

How long the data is stored?

Your personal data will be deleted from the registration system no later than one year after the event.

To whom your information may be disclosed?

We provide some information as needed to our partners (such as conference or meeting places, hotels and restaurants).

All personal data will be processed securely in accordance with applicable law. No personal information transferred to others and not transferred outside the EU and the EEA without your consent.

If you want to have further information, contact Aboa by email for more information (info@aboaservices.fi).

From which sources personal information is collected?

Your personal information will be collected with your consent when you register for the event. During registration process you can give your consent to the publication of your participation, for example in the lists of participants, websites and applications.

If you do not provide the requested information when you register, your registration will not be processed and you will not be able to register as a participant.

How your personal information is protected?

Electronic materials are stored in the IT system and on computers that are protected from unauthorized access, including passwords. The systems have different user levels and access rights are limited so that users have access only to the information they need in the course of their work. Paper information is stored in locked spaces to which access is restricted.

What are your rights when registered?

Once registered, you have the right to:

- Withdraw your consent
- Request information about the processing of your personal information
- To see personal information about you
- require the correction of incorrect information
- require the deletion of your personal information
- restrict the processing of your personal information
- object to the processing of your personal data

Updating the privacy statement

The latest version of the privacy statement can be found on the event website.

Contact information

You can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting us at info@aboaservices.fi If you have any questions about the processing of your personal information, please contact us.

You have the right to make a complaint, especially according to the location of your permanent residence or place of work to the supervisory authority if you consider that the processing of personal data infringes the general EU data protection regulation (EU) 2016/679. In Finland, the supervisory authority is the data protection commissioner.
